WELCOME

We're glad you're here today.

In Acts 20:17–38, Paul meets with the elders of the church in Ephesus for a final farewell. He reminds them of his humble service, perseverance through hardship, and faithfulness in preaching the Gospel. Paul urges the leaders to care for the church, remain vigilant against false teachers, and shepherd God's people faithfully.

Knowing he will face suffering ahead, Paul expresses his commitment to finishing the work God has given him. He commends the believers to God and encourages them to support the weak, live generously, and remember the words of Jesus: "It is more blessed to give than to receive."
