DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Rooted in God's Word

1. What can we learn about God from this passage?

2. Paul's testimony centered on Jesus—who he was before Christ, how Christ met him, and how God is at work in his life now. Which part of Paul's testimony stands out most to you and why?

Growing in God's Grace

3. What are some "ordinary moments" in your week that you might be overlooking as opportunities for God to work through you?

4. Paul allowed every part of his life—his gifts, experiences, education, and even his suffering—to be used for God's purposes. Are there areas of your life that you tend to compartmentalize rather than surrender to God?

5. Take a few minutes to reflect on your own testimony. How would you answer these three questions:
    i. Who was I before Christ?
    ii. How did Christ meet me?
    iii. How is He at work in me today?

Reaching Others for Christ

6. Who has God strategically placed in your life right now that may need to experience the love and truth of Jesus? What common ground might help you build a bridge with them?

7. Paul looked at difficult circumstances as opportunities to bear witness to Christ. How might God be inviting you to see your workplace, neighborhood, school, or relationships as part of your calling?
8. What fears or obstacles keep you from sharing your testimony or speaking about Jesus with others?

9. This week, what is one intentional step you can take to live as a witness for Christ—whether that's asking someone questions, sharing part of your testimony, inviting someone into community, or simply being more attentive to the opportunities God places before you?
