WELCOME

We're glad you're here today.

By gathering for worship, fellowship, prayer, and the study of God's Word, you are putting into practice what Paul encourages in Colossians 3—setting your heart and mind on Christ.

Today, we welcome Case Mulder to the pulpit.

Case currently serves as a youth director at Friendship Church in Shakopee, MN. He has completed a degree from the University of Northwestern in St. Paul and is currently working toward a seminary degree from Northwestern. Case is passionate about God's word, God's people, and prayer, and his favorite ways to pass the time are reading good books, watching/playing sports, and spending time with his beautiful wife, Winona.
